

Product Manager - Mobile Apps

Full-time (Linz)

Starting now!

Your territory

As a connection between our teams you will:

- Ensure the ongoing optimization and development of our mobile apps
- Manage the entire mobile product line life cycle from requirements to release, manage timelines and app release plans, prioritization, and coordinate the implementation
- Organize and manage the delivery of several concurrent running projects, features and tasks
- Collaborate closely with the Mobile Development team, with internal and external stakeholders, and other contact persons
- Provide continuous oversight after implementation for further improvements and ensure the ongoing optimization and development of the apps and features
- Take on the strategic responsibility and user-oriented implementation for the product vision
- Work with Sales, Marketing, Customer Service and other departments to ensure revenue and customer satisfaction, and other goals are met

Your profile

Key requirements:

- Professional experience in product management and leading projects
- Experience with Software/Application/Mobile Development and/or UI/UX
- Affinity for the Tractive products
- Very good English skills

Does this sound like you?

- Analytical mindset and well-organized
- Ability to break down and solve complex problems in an agile environment
- A big picture understanding but also detail-oriented
- Engaged, autonomous and solution-oriented
- Initiative, innovative, and communicative
- Willing to come and work with our fantastic team in Austria

So you know what to expect: For this position we offer a competitive overpayment based on qualifications and experiences. The yearly gross salary is between € 35,000 and € 49,000 on a full-time basis.

Apply now!